A CRUEL COON

Strikes His Helpless Wife Down and Then Carves Her Throat.

Flight of a Forger and Murderer from a Railroad Train at St. Louis.

A Mother and Five Little Children Poisoned from Eating Toadstools.

Fatal Encounter With Horse Thieves---The Freight Handlers Outdone.

Public Building at Terre Haute.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The senate bill, for public building at Terre Haute, Ind., passed the house.

A Family Poisoned.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

CHICAGO, July 3.—A widow woman named Hanley, living near Streator, Ills., yesterday poisoned herself and five small children, eating toadstools, she supposed to be mushrooms.

Fatal Fight With Horse Thieves.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

LINKVILLE, Ore., July 3.—Constable Beak, with two men, last Tuesday overtook two horse thieves, they had been tracking. A fight ensued and one thief was killed and the other mortally wounded.

A Mixed Intervention.

[By Cable to the Sentinel.]

PARIS, July 3.—It is stated that if Turkey persists in abstaining from European accord, it is predicted that the conference will be obliged to intrust the intervention in Egypt to a mixed corps of English, French, Italian and Greek troops.

Terrible Case of Wife Murder.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

CINCINNATI, July 3.—A Little Rock, Ark., special says that news of a tragedy in Cross county has just been received. A negro named Aaron Jones, living near Wittsburg, started for the railroad station, some miles distant, accompanied by his wife. At a lonely spot they quarreled. He struck her on the head with a slung shot, then cut her throat and escaped. She recovered sufficiently to crawl to the house of Col. N. P. Johnson, tell her story and then die.

The Freight Handlers Strike.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

NEW YORK, July 3.—The freight handlers strike continues, but railway company's are moving goods more regularly nevertheless.

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—The Pennsylvania railroad officials announced this morning that they now have a full force of freight handlers employed at all freight piers in New York, and at grain elevators on the Jersey City side. They are in a position to promptly handle all east and west bound traffic, and anticipate no further delay in the delivery of goods. A majority of their men have gone to work at the old rates.

Escape of a Forger.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

ST. LOUIS, July 3.—A special from Carlinville, Ills, says that Norman Prouse, the Elgin forger, who was the central figure in the recent throat cutting sensation at Sedalia, escaped from the officers who had him in charge, by jumping from a Chicago and Alton train last night at this point. The alarm was not given until the train reached Nilwood. Prouse had his throat tied up with a handkerchief to cover his wounds. As yet no traces have been found of him, except that he was seen in a wagon going west. Sheriff Sunderland received a telegram to-day from the chief police of Elgin to arrest Prause if possible, as he was wanted for murder, as later developments, it is alleged, show that Prouse poisoned his own child just before leaving for Sedalia. The greatest excitement prevails at Elgin and every effort will be made to arrest Orouse.

Murder in Philadelphia.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—Wm. Kelley Saturday night visited the house of John Rodgers, in the absence [illegible] Rodgers came home at midnight and ordered the intruder, who was a stranger, to leave. Kelley refused, asserting that he had been with Rodgers' wife all the afternoon and evening and was not going to be disturbed at that hour. Rodgers kicked him out. A few minutes later he returned and fired at Rodgers. The latter stepped aside, and the ball penetrated his wife's breast. She died last evening, while a magistrate was taking her ante-mortem deposition. The murderer is a desperate character. He was arrested.

The Republican Complication in Pennsylvania.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—It is found that all the nominees of the regular republican convention are willing to withdraw if such steps may be necessary to unite the two wings, and if the independent republican nominees will also take the same step. In such event a new convention, representing both wings, would be called. Gen. Beaver earnestly favors some such course. A widespread feeling prevails that Beaver and Stewart will both be withdrawn, and Attorney General Brewster substituted as a harmony candidate. It is expected the feeling will take tangible shape in a few days.

Singular Accident.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 3.—Sunday evening, while Policeman Cravens was pumping water, a girl pulled his coat, causing the discharge of his revolver, which killed a boy named Roberts, about six years old, who was standing near by.

OUR OWN STATE.

The wheat crop of Gibson county will not fall much short of two million bushels.

The court house at Tipton was struck by lightning Friday but not much injured.

Cyrus, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hepler, of South Bend, fell into a cistern on Thursday and was drowned.

The hay crop this year in this section (Elkhart county) does not give very great promise of being large. —Middlebury Record.

John Cooker shot John Rodgers through the head at Shelburn a station six miles from Sullivan. He will probably die. No particulars.

A little two-year old daughter of Cloud, of Petersburg, Tipton county, was killed by lightning Friday and two other persons injured.

Mrs. Charles Bruder of New Albany was thrown over a high embankment in a spring wagon, west of the city, and received internal injuries that may prove fatal.

Mittie Pine son of L. Pine with some other boys, was firing a toy pistol in the alley at South Bend, when a large watch dog sprang out and bit him quite severely on the hip.

The tobacco-fly is the latest pest which has come to worry the soul of the farmer. A small boy can capture a peck of them in a short time of an evening, in a flower garden.—Rising Sun Record.

John Small, a tailor from Aberdeen, O., who has only been in Richmond a few days, fell from his room window in the second story of the Indiana house, to the pavement below, and was badly, if not fatally, injured.

The bottle department of DePauw's New Albany glass-works has closed for the season. This year about 1,370,000 fruit jars of Mason's and other patents were made. This is not quite as many as were made last year.

A Warning.

The mayor has given orders to the marshal and his deputies to arrest all persons who shall discharge revolvers or guns in the city limits to-morrow. Marshal Falkes informs us that he shall strictly enforce the mayor's command, and it behooves a too patriotic public to take this kindly warning and keep their guns out of sight.

The Harlan Independent says that "Mr. P. J. Wise's chances for nomination for the office of clerk of the supreme court seem to brighten every day."

SUED FOR SLANDER.

S. A. Aurentz, the Broadway Grocer, Sued for Alleged Slanderous Utterances Concerning Mrs. Christina Grage.

This afternoon in the circuit court Sinclair & Hanna, attorneys for Mrs. Christina Grage and her husband, Wm. Grage, brought suit against Solomon A. Aurentz, demanding $3,000 damages. Mr. Aurentz is the well known grocer of No. 129 Broadway, and Grage is a truckman, who lives in the neighborhood.

The complaint specifically charges that Mr. Aurentz on the 29th inst., did give utterance to the following false and defamatory words when speaking of Mrs. Grage: "She is anything and everything but a lady:" meaning that she was unchaste, and a bad, worthless woman. Also that defendant styled the plaintiff, Mrs. Grage, "a damned w——."

The affair, it is said, grew out of a quarrel of long standing, and the suit brought to-day will speedily be the gossip of the neighborhood. Mr. Aurentz claims to be able to refute any charges that are not true, and that he will stick by any statements of his which are susceptible of proof. Sympathy is, we are informed, with him.

LOCAL LINES.

The Pittsburg and Wabash shops will be shut down to-morrow.

Mrs. Lizzie Shearer, of Huntington, is in the city visiting relatives.

Olds' spoke factory shut down Saturday night until after the Fourth.

Passenger travel on the different railroads was very heavy yesterday.

The newly appointed township physicians signed contracts this afternoon.

W. H. Worden, of Detroit, Mich., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Noll.

The City band headed the funeral cortege of the late R. C. Wadge this afternoon.

Mrs. Geo. W. Jones and daughter, Hattie, have gone to Hinkley, Ill., to spend the summer.

Patrolman Connors and his wife have settled their little differences and are living together again.

The Antioch, Kendallville and Ligonier bands play here to-morrow at the Fourth of July festivities.

W. E. Crosley, the pleasant director of the third advertising brigade of Forepaugh's show, called here to-day.

The young men of Emanuel's Lutheran church have presented to the church a new $200 bell, cast at the Troy foundry.

The two cases of W. H. Myers against Patrolman McCann, set for this evening, were continued until 10 a. m. Wednesday.

A large party from Pittsburg under the management of the Allegheny City Gymnastic club passed through the city yesterday en route to Chicago

The alley between Wagner's drug store and Sidel's restaurant should be kept clean. The smells therefrom are decidedly unhealthy and unpleasant.

The mayor and council will review the fire department to-morrow at 12:30 o'clock on East Berry street, between Calhoun and Lafayette streets.

The indications for the lower lake region are partly cloudy weather, with local rains, southerly veering to westerly winds and stationary or lower pressure.

Mary Aber, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Aber, 70 Wilt street, this city, died at Indianapolis Sunday morning. The remains will be interred at Alpha, in Adams Co, on Tuesday at 11 a. m.

The Oscar Wilde base ball club nine, æsthetic looking youths from Kendallville, are registered at the Mayer. This afternoon they are playing a game of ball at the fair ground with the Golden Eagles.

The Assembly people at Rome City are a trifle too straight laced. Yesterday, to preserve the sanctity of the Sabbath, they stopped the fountains from playing, and all the fish in the basins died. Again, they want to stop boating on the lake Sundays. Just how they will manage it we can't see.

Prof. Barckhoff, the organist of Grand Rapids, as it will be known, contracted with the Assembly people for an organ at Rome City. The organ originally ordered could not be [illegible] to, and the instrument placed in position. It is said the Assembly people then "kicked," and wanted to pay the price first named for the smaller organ. Prof. Barckhoff said nothing, but "fixed" the machine so it couldn't be played, and came on here. Soon a telegram reached him to which he paid no attention. Finally one of the Assembly men came on, paid the professor his price, and the organ is now in running order.

Some person turned a horse loose on the streets to day, and as the animal walked down Calhoun street a little son of Jacob Rohle walked out and caught him by the hind leg. Not enjoying the familiarity the horse kicked the little fellow in the knee, inflicting a painful wound. The injured lad was taken to his home near the corner of Calhoun and Jefferson streets.

A New Garden.

As the summer season advances and the direct rays of Old Sol pours down upon us, making the atmosphere oppressive, all feel like retreating to a cool resort, where they may become refreshed and escape business cares, at intervals during the day, to enjoy a cool glass of lager. We are requested to announce the opening of the new garden of Charles Leichner in the building just erected at 64 East Main street, where Mr. Leichner has fitted up one of the handsomest rooms in the city. The walls are covered with beautiful gilt and bronze paper, the ceiling is high, and a cool breeze circulates through the building, cooling the heated brow of the frequenter.

The furniture and fixtures are all brand new, and everything presents a clean, fresh and enticing appearance. It is the intentions of Mr Leichner to make his new place a popular resort for his old friends and customers and the public generally. He will keep on hand all kinds of wines and liquors and the famous Cincinnati lager beer. The garden will be opened to night and all are invited to call around and give Mr. Leichner a good send off. A grand lunch will be served, consisting of soup, meats and vegetables. No one should fail to see this bower of beauty. Charlie thanks his old customers for their patronage in the past and hopes to serve them in the future, at 64 East Main street.

TO-MORROW being the Fourth of July, a national holiday, no SENTINEL will be issued.

THROUGH the advice of Mark Anthony July was named in honor of Julius Cæsar, who was born on the 12th of this month.

BROTHER BARNES, the mountain evangelist of Kentucky, is now endeavoring to fill the people of Dayton, Ohio, with religious zeal.

THE New Haven murder trial has been ended. The Malley boys and Blanche Douglass have been acquitted. The murderers of poor Jennie Cramer remain unpunished, but not unknown.

THE democrats will carry Pennsylvania, not by repudiating the state debt, as the republicans have done in Virginia, but by the aid of the honest, intelligent voters of the state who desire a government of the people.

THE business failures for the first six months of 1882, as reported by the mercantile agency of R. G. Dun & Co., are in number 3,597, with liabilities of $50,000,000. The failures of the first six months of 1881 were 2,862, with liabilities of $40,000,000.

THE Haverly Amusement company has been incorporated with a capital of $300,000, with J. H. Haverly at the head. It will bring good English attractions here, and send good American attractions to England. The new company will control all of Mr. Haverly's theatres.

THE railroad corporations and iron manufacturers are still successfully repelling the demands of laborers for just compensation, and are employing the pauper labor of Europe, against which they loudly cry approaching an election. Thus the fruits of protection are being reaped.

ROBERT M. A. HAWK, of Mount Carrol, Illinois, representative of the Fourth district of that state, died at Washington last week, after an illness of ten days. He was a native of Hancock county, Indiana, born April 23, 1839; was graduated from Eureka college Illinois, and served through the war, as lieutenant, captain and major. He served four years as clerk of Carrol county, and was elected to the forty sixth and forty-seventh congress, as a republican.

THE statistical bureau's June crop bulletin shows the wheat crop for the state to be 107.9 per cent. of an average year, indicating a production between 45,000,000 and 50,000,000 bushels. Corn shows an acreage of 98.3 per cent., and a condition of 87.5, the acreage and condition being higher in the southern than northern portion of the state. The oat crop shows a condition of 105.3; rye, 99; flax, 96.4; potatoes, 106 for acreage and 107 for condition; tobacco, 98.4 for acreage, and 97.1 for condition; wool, 99.5 on last year; timothy, 100.3; clover, 100.5; apples, 71.5; peaches, 67.6; hogs affected by disease, 3.5.

IT is pretty generally known that to-morrow is the anniversary of the signing of the declaration of Independence, as drafted by Thomas Jefferson. Let us ponder and see if the good results Mr. Jefferson intended should accrue to the people from that immortal document are not somewhat estranged. The chief executive did not then fear assassination. The doctrine of hate was untaught. The people were not told that a certain party must be kept in power in order to perpetuate the republic in the [illegible] ing politicians. Visiting [illegible] were not in demand. Protection was [illegible] were not able to squeeze the life blood out of labor. Land grants to railroad corporations were not so frequent. It was not a government of the bosses, for the bosses and by the bosses. It was then a people's government, simple and honest.

OCCASIONALLY we read harrowing accounts about the disfranchised negroes of the south, and we are told that if a free ballot was allowed they would sweep things before them with a high hand. This is the republican campaign song. The census report, however, does not indicate that the colored people are in a majority or approach anywhere near it. Tennessee has an American born population of 1,125,236 whites, 403,421 colored; Virginia contributes 23,577 whites and 14,482 colored; North Carolina, 32,565 whites and 9383 colored; Kentucky, 18,231 whites and 6,637 colored; Alabama 15,115 whites and 7,085 colored; Mississippi, 9,088 whites and 7,085 colored.

THE medals significant of the devotion to Grant at the Chicago convention have been distributed among the "306" faithful. The Washington Post says that "President Arthur was the recipient of brass medal struck in honor of the devotion of himself and 305 others to a cause whose defeat made him what he is. The medal is about three inches in diameter, weighs six ounces, is ornamented with a head of U. S. Grant and the name "Chester A. Arthur," and is encircled with the record of the thirty-six ballots taken in the republican national convention of 1880. In accepting the gift from the hands of ex-Senator Conkling, who came to Washington to present it, Mr. Arthur simply referred to the brazen beauty of the design."

IN the selection of candidates for state offices, the Pennsylvania democrats displayed excellent judgment. The men are all young, active and brilliant. They are representive, and are free from the trammels of bossism. They represent practical reform, which in the Keystone state is an important item. Enthusiasm everywhere exists over the ticket, and the prospect is that the most intelligent of the independent republicans, seeing that the success of their candidates is doubtful, will support the democratic ticket in order to overthrow the tyrannical republican government. There seems to be no demand in Pennsylvania for the party that "crushed the rebellion," and plundered the national treasury ever since. The Philadelphia Times, leading independent republican paper in Pennsylvania, refers to the ticket as follows: "The world moves! Think of the long Bourbon and faction ridden democracy of Pennsylvania, that has preferred defeat to progress for a quarter of a century, at last breaking through its musty shrouds, declaring for the most progressive and practical reforms, and nominating a ticket of such aggressive young reformers as Pattison, Black, Clark, Elliot and Africa. With the whole democratic organization boldly marshaled under the banner of reform and under the lead of the most pronounced reform leaders, and with a large portion of the republican party independently organized for reform, it is safe to assume that the deliverance of Pennsylvania is at hand. The people are about ready to boss the bosses, and they will be heard with emphasis about next January, when the youngest governer the state has ever had will deliver his inaugural address."

A Suggestion.

A day's pleasure at your disposal, instead of a day's agony. Everyone who has corns can testify to the constant discomfort they produce. "I could have enjoyed the ball, or the picnic or some other social pastime, but, Oh! how my corns ached!" No necessity now, for such complaints. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor removes the cause speedily. Try it. Beware of another article "just as good." Take only Putnam's. Sold everywhere. Wholesale, Stewart & Barry, Indianapolis.

Intending purchasers of Pond's Extract cannot take too much precaution to prevent substitution. Unscrupulous druggists, trading upon the popularity of this great Family Remedy, attempt to palm off other preparations, unscrupulously asserting them to be "the same as" or "equal to" Pond's Extract, indifferent to the deceit practiced upon, and disappointment thereby caused to the purchaser, so long as larger profit accrues to themselves. Always insist on having Pond's Extract. Take no other. Sold in bottles only; never in bulk.

The degree of LL. D. has been conferred on President Arthur by Union college.

Druggist's Testimony.

Dried Peaches and Canned Peaches at a Great Reduction, and

No Advance on Sugars, Syrups or Tobaccos.

We purchase direct of the importer and sell direct to our customers, thereby saving them the profit of the speculator, jobber and wholesale dealer, which is all the way from 10 to 25 cents a pound.

ALONG THE LINE.

Drs. Frothnigham and Kingsley of the Grand Rapids English Medical and Surgical Institute, 65 Monroe street have in our city and have established a branch at 34 West Main street, Aufrecht's block, Fort Wayne, where our many citizens under their treatment can consult with them; also any who may wish can obtain the benefit of their accurate diagnosis diseases without questions and free of charge, thus giving every one the privilege of their unprecedented experience in cialty, without the heretofore long journey to their Institute in Grand Rapids. For the past three years so frequent tive have the demands that they should personally visit their many patients in our city, and Northern Indiana, that at last consented, and will charge nothing for all those coming under their treatment the first 20 days. Drs. F. & K. by the accuracy of their diagnosis, which amount almost to intuition; they locate every ache and pain; explain how the disease or ailment was contracted, and demonstrate how it can be eradicated and in what length of time; these facts by their patients to be marvelous. The question is now, "can we be cured?" Drs. F. & K. take no cases pronounced by curable, but so state the case to the patient. They have no time for experiments; their time is all occupied treating can cure.

A thousand testimonials from Grand Rapids can be seen at their office, some of which we would print had we room.

"SOAPY" GLENN.

Another Wife of the Absconding Fort Wayne Jeweler Turns up in Baltimore—She Wants to Compare Notes With Wife No. 1.

The escapades of John H. Glenn, alias "Soapy," the jeweler who skipped the city sometime ago are familiar to the public. After "Soapy" lit out his wife hung about here for some time, and for numerous reasons was popular with certain men about town, who saw to it that the loss of her husband was not such a crushing blow after all. Fort Wayne, however, grew rather slow for the deserted Mrs. Glenn, and she emigrated to Chicago where she is said to occupy elegant apartments on the corner of State and Adams streets, furnished by a wealthy, infatuated, and bald headed old hoard of tradesman, who occasionally seeks respite from the cares of business in the grass widow's society.

It appears that John Glenn went east and to Baltimore where his mother resides, he has been guilty of bigamy, as the following letter from Mrs. Glenn No. 2 will show. To this effusion a reply was sent, stating that "Soapy" was now located at Dayton, O. It is to be presumed that the Baltimore female will now spruce up, and lay for another husband. We wish her better luck next time. The letter is as follows:

"BALTIMORE, Md., June 25, 1882.

"Mr. ———

Dear Sir: Your letter in regard to Mrs. John Glenn was received, but I did not receive it until after it was here a week. I had had Mr. Glenn arrested for abuse, so he got angry, and went to some other place in the city, and then he was afraid I was going to put him through for bigamy. So he left town, and was gone over two weeks before I knew it. He had written me several times, regretting what he had done, and was anxious to make up, and I had meant to do so, but a certain party had frightened him away. So I don't know what to do now. Does his other wife knew that he is married and in case I wished her to come on, would she come? I don't care for defraying her traveling expenses. If she would come then I would not need pay for a divorce, though lately I have most made up my mind to let it pass, in case he don't wish to come back, because I am not his lawful wife if she is living. So I could marry again, I think without getting a divorce from this man, at least I can in another state, though I find I do love him and he thought the world of me, but there is such a difference in our families which has made it unpleasant too. I never associated with them but I have been very miserable since he is gone and I would get him back if I could. He went to Cincinnati, Ohio. I have written him and his brother sent a letter to him for me, but we have no answer yet. His brother would not tell me his whereabouts, so I had to find out my own way, which took two weeks and I am afraid he still doubts my letters as they told him before he left that I was just coaxing hom on by my letters in order to handle him by law. Still I may hear from him soon. I sent my letter Wednesday and if he has only got it, he may have left there ere this. Write soon and let me know of his other wife and give me her address, but you need not tell her he is married, if she don't know it. Write at once. Please say nothing about this until I hear from you, and let me know if she really does keep a bawdy house, and if that was the reason because he left her because she was too fast with the men; also give me her address. His mother, who is a widow, would like to have us make up. She is most sick over the trouble.

"Do you know Mr. Glenn when you see him? He shaved off his sideburns before he left here, I am told, so he could not be traced up easily. Please excuse bad writing and address me, No. 89 Bond street.

"From his wife No. 2,

"MRS. JOHN B. GLENN.

"P. S.—John changed his middle initial from "H" to "B" after he came here."

A Bad Case.

Saturday evening, Trustee Gaffney sent to the county asylum a girl named Mary Kennedy, who had been refused admittance at the Home for the Friendless and the hospitals. The girl is from Cincinnati, about nineteen years of age, and is in an advanced state of pregnancy. She claims her seducer is a Cincinnati attorney, named Bell, and she followed him to Indianapolis and supposed he came here.

Superintendent Wilkinson and family have made the girl who is of the middle class, as comfortable as possible. Last night the Matron of the "Home" visited the asylum to see the [illegible]

The case of Miss Kennedy was surely worthy of consideration, but the unfortunate girl was turned from the door of the refuge.

THE EAGLE BIRD

Will Be Prepared To Scream In First Class Shape To-Morrow--Fort Wayne To Have the Biggest Blow-Out In Years.

To-morrow the American citizen will have free rein to blow off the accumulated steam of the year. Patriotism will be let loose and manifest itself in the usual noisy way. The people of this country have occasion to let themselves loose, now that the assassin's neck is broken, and the fact that the wretch is dead will not dampen the general enthusiasm. Fort Wayne this year will have a rousing celebration, for which all the details will be fully completed at the meeting to-night. The procession moves promptly at one o'clock to the fair grounds, marshalled by Col. O. D. Hurd, and the following aids: Ferd F. Boltz, E. O. Edgerton, Thomas Sullivan, Louis C. Zollinger, J. O. Kensill, J. W. Cope, A. R Walters, Robert Harrison, William Mannix, J. Michael, M. Kelley, J. H. Rohan, Charles Reese and E. B. Smith. A feature of the procession will be the car of the Goddess of Liberty containing thirteen young ladies attired in white to represent the original thirteen states and drawn by ten horses. The following enterprising business houses will be represented in the procession by "floats:" C. L. Olds & Co., founders and machinists; Kerr Murray manufacturing company, founders and machinists; Bass foundry and machine works, founders and machinists; Shroeder Bros., druggists; J. D. Gumpper, grocer; Wilding & Son., coal dealers; Louis Fox, cracker factory; the Bond bakery, flour; C. Shiefer & Son, boots and shoes; E. Shuman, everything; A. L. Johns & Son, saddlers and harness; Morgan & Beach, hardware; Prescott Brothers & Co., hardware; Frank Alderman, agriculture; E. Verdermark & Son, boots and shoes; Golden Eagle base ball club; Golden Eagle clothing house; A. S. Lauferty & Co., clothing; C. L. Centlivre, French brewery; L. B. Johns, carriage manufactory; E. B. Kunkle & Co., safety valves; Golden & Monahan, hatters; O. B. Fitch & Co., hatters; C. R. Jenney; J. B. Monning & Co., spice and mustard mill; M. N. Jacobs, hides and pelts; Wile Bro. & Co., hides and pelts; Lauferty & Co. [illegible] and Lumber company, wood workers; Daniel Shordon, agricultural implements; Rogers, Lewis & Co., saddlers and hardware; Gage Bros., broom manufacturers; City Carriage Works; Staub Bros., tinners; E. Glasser, baker; Keller & Brunner, stone cutters; Sam, Pete & Max, clothiers; N. G. Olds, wagon works; N. G. Olds & Son, spoke and hub factory; and others to be made known to-night.

At the fair grounds, the horse and bicycle races, athletic sports, sack race, climbing greased pole, etc, will be rapidly carried out. Hon. Byron K. Elliot, of Indianapolis, will deliver the oration which will be a splendid effort, judging from the gentleman's wide reputation as an orator. At 8:30, the grand display of fireworks commences. The full program will to-night be arranged so as to appear in the morning paper.

We are requested to urge that all who propose to be in the line must be the ground by 12:30.

THE SENTINEL hopes to chronicle the complete success of the celebration, marred by no accident or untoward circumstance whatever.

The Best Way.

The best way to increase the appetite, assist digestion, cause the food to assimilate properly, and the absorbents to take up nourishment, induce full and regular evacuation, produce easy expectoration, and stop decay of the lungs, heart, liver, urinary and digestive organs and purify the blood, is by using that Queen of health called Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. Leading physicians recommend it as a true strengthener, a sure reviver and perfect health renewer. It is composed of harmless yet effective vegetable tonics and will not harm the most delicate, being especially adapted to enfeebled constitutions and infants.

A physician writes: "For all diseases affecting the blood, liver and kidneys, brain and nervous system, there is no combination prepared for general use more beneficial than Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. I recommend it frequently in my practice."

Why then remain a crabby dyspeptic and nervous sufferer? Why not be strong, healthy and robust?

Arion hall will be nicely ventilated to morrow night for the Fourth of July ball.

Twenty Trained Elephants,

More than ever were seen together in the New World, are announced as one of the principal features of the Great Forepaugh Show, which is to exhibit here on Saturday next.

Disease is an effect, not a cause. Its origin is within; its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cause must be removed, and in no other way can a cure be effected. WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and restorer, and, by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing disorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

The Bad and Worthless

are never imitated or counterfeited. This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value. As soon as it had been tested and proved by the whole world that Hop Bitters was the purest, best and most valuable family medicine on earth, many imitations sprung up and began to steal the notices in which the press and people of the country had expressed the merits of H. B. and in every way trying to induce suffering invalids to use their stuff instead, expecting to make money on the credit and good name of H. B. Many others started nostrums put up in similar style to H. B., with variously devised names in which the word "Hop" or "Hops" were used in a way to induce people to believe they were the same as Hop Bitters. All such pretended remedies or cures, no matter what their style or name is, and especially those with the word "Hop" or "Hops" in their name or in any way connected with them or their name, are imitations or counterfeits. Beware of them. Touch none of them. Use nothing but genuine Hop Bitters, with a bunch or cluster of green Hops on the white label. Trust nothing else. Druggists and dealers are warned against dealing in imitations or counterfeits.

MONDAY, JULY 3.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

So you had a nice time in the country?

Well, yes; didn't stay so mighty long as we expected to. Pa moralized so much we had to come back.

How was that?

Pa owns a farm, you known, out near Wauwatosa, and ma, me and him went out there Saturday to enjoy the country air and sea breezes from the Waukesha springs and all that rot, but you see we are back again.

Pa is back too. If you could see him you'd think he was all back. Looks as if he had a toy balloon in the back of his vest. All come from moralizing.

Well?

Well you see old Widder Morton and her three boys are running the farm for pa, and Monday was quite hot and pa and me and Pete Morton, the kid of the gang, had been out rustling up things and we came into the house about half-past eleven in the morning by the bright light, ma was up stairs and the widder was gettin' dinner, (say, she weighs more'n ninety-seven million tuns; off aways you can't tell whether she is standin' up or layin' down.) Well, pa lay right down on the floor and went right to sleep.

Now you know pa is jest an awful snorer, he can simply poison a cat five blocks off, in two different languages with one hand tied behind him, with that snore, and ma, ever since she has boarded with us, can't catch on to that snore of pa's.

Pa gets to sozzing and soarin' up into the air like a dollar and a quarter sky-rocket, about 2 a. m., every night, and ma wakes up maddern a wet hen, regular. She nudges pa and sings out "you, roll over," and pa rolls over and puts a nigger on the safety valve for a while. Well, its got to be such a regular thing for pa, that when he hears those calabastic words, he rolls over without even wakin' up, regular force of habit, fakement, you see?"

Well, that's the commencement of this aneckdote, (and the boy's face showed no more anxiety than a face of putty.)

Well, after pa had laid on the floor for a while, he got to snorin' one of those old time pop-bottle snores, a kinder of a snare drum and flute attachment, when in come Pete. He and I set there a while and every time pa got in an extra death rattle, Pete's eyes would bung out, and he would look at me as much as to say, I wonder if that feller is playin it on me. (For I didn't let on but that it was regular diet for me, you know.) The widder came in and threw up the trap door that leads to the cellar, right by pa's side. Jest then I remembered pa had been quite harsh to me lately, and I thought I would give him a pleasant reminder that I was still in the land of the living and on praying grouna, (as Uncle Abram says in his devotions.) So I whispers to Pete, did you ever play Petumpky? He sed no. Well, says I when I get out by the door you sing out "You roll over" and you'll see how it goes.

So Pete sung it out.

I never! well! The widder was just coming up the cellar stairs with a pan of milk, and for a minute I thought a hunk of the Grinnell tornado had feil through the roof.

I heard pa telling ma about it after I went to bed. He said he felt as if he had been strained through a sidewalk grating. Ma was hufly and after a while she asked where I was during the fracas, and pa tumbled to the whole racket.

Pa is stronger'n I am, and he never would take a joke. Next fall I'm going to be a pirut and saw his body off with a mortgage or sunthin.

And there was blood in the boy's eye.—Chicago Correspondent in Peck's Sun.

Annie Louise Cary's Father's Family.

Dr. Nelson H. Cary moved to Durham, Me., about thirty-five years ago. Of his remarkable family, made famous the world over by Annie Louise, we will speak in detail; they are all personally remembered by our informant. Joseph, his oldest child, was a fine bass singer. He married Flora Barry, a famous opera singer who has visited Lewiston several times. He has been divorced from her within a few years. William, the next son, was also a good singer. Both these boys were grown up when they removed to Durham. The next youngest child was Marcia, now Mrs. J. O. Merril of Portland. When the children went to singing school together, and were instructed by Joe Tyler and his fiddle, Marcia was called the best singer in the town, and was supposed to possess [illegible] the family, and had an unusually good voice. She is now the wife of a Congregational minister. Then came Samuel, who was a good bass singer. He is now in the clothing business in New York. The next and youngest child by his first wife was Anna Louise. "I've slid down hill with her many a time," says the Durham historian. Anna Louise will always be remembered as a romp in her youth. While still young she went to Boston and her musical education was begun under the care of her brother. After Annie's mother died Dr. Cary took a second wife, who presented him with Ada, the youngest of the family. She refused musical advantages and fell in love. The match proved an unhappy one. Her husband and she lived apart, and she is educating several young children. She recently has sung on numerous occasions in public. She has already become popular and bids fair to become a star. She now attempts nothing but songs and ballads. She will probably take a musical education and make the stage her profession. The natural quality of her voice is said to be equal to Annie's. Concerts by the Cary family were frequently given in Durham and were invariably attended by large audiences. The old Doctor was a noted bass singer. When the Cary family first came to Durham they created a great increase in the musical interest of the town. Durham was then at the pinnacle of musical fame.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT

The king of the body is the brain; the stomach its main support; the nerves messengers; the bowels, the kidneys and the pores its safeguards. Indigestion creates a violent revolt among these attaches of the regal organ, and to bring them back to their duty, there is nothing like the regulating, purifying, invigorating, cooling operation of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient. It renovates the system and restores to health both the body and the mind.
